

VCI Packaging Manufacturer Expands European Presence Second Time in Eight Years

Daubert Cromwell GmbH relocates to provide greater sales and service support for EU market.

MUNICH, GERMANY – The European division of U.S.-based Daubert Cromwell LLC has expanded its facilities to accommodate a larger sales and customer service presence and support the significant growth of its corrosion inhibitor packaging business.

“This move represents our commitment to establish Daubert Cromwell GmbH as the premiere supplier of quality VCI packaging to customers throughout the EU,” said Martin J. Simpson, President and CEO of Daubert Cromwell and Geschäftsführer of Daubert Cromwell GmbH. “Europe remains one of our fastest growing sectors, and we’re pleased to be able to provide our extensive VCI product lines and signature level of customer service to this market.”

Daubert Cromwell GmbH opened its doors in 2007 and expanded its presence once before moving in January 2015 to new offices in Munich. This location now serves as the European headquarters for GmbH Vice President Scott Kotvis, three Sales Managers, Customer Service and Sales Support teams. Each of Sales Manager is responsible for separate regions, as follows:

Andreas Schlatzer (aschlatzer@daubertcromwell.eu) : Northern Germany, Spain, France, Portugal, Benelux Countries, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Denmark, United Kingdom, Ireland

Klaus Talo (ktalo@daubertcromwell.eu) : Southern Germany

Nicolas Ruth (nruth@daubertcromwell.eu) : Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Poland, Czech Republic, Turkey, Hungary, Slovakia, Slovenia, Romania, Baltic Region

“Another important step in our improved capability to market and sell in the EU is the appointment of Vice President Scott Kotvis to work with our European sales managers to help them provide optimal solutions to customers’ corrosion problems,” Simpson continued.

“Daubert Cromwell has brands that are specifically tailored to the unique needs and requirements of European customers, and our Munich-based staff is doing an outstanding job meeting those needs.”

The new office underscores Daubert Cromwell's dedication to building its global capabilities as a VCI manufacturer, Simpson added, noting it also has subsidiaries in Mexico and China in addition to its headquarters in Alsip, IL.

“As the needs of our global customers expand, we will expand with them,” he said.
